Re: Margaret "Jenny" Hatch

Dear Mr. Talbert and Ms. Morris:

I write on behalf of my client, Jewish Family Service of Tidewater, Inc., temporary guardian of Margaret Jean "Jenny" Hatch. Needless to say last Thursday was quite difficult for Jenny. I am informed that she is stable and participating in the group home's activities. Jewish Family Service is investigating how to maintain her emotional stability. It has been decided that temporarily your visits with her and any other contact with her must cease while Jewish Family Service sorts out how to best keep Jenny on an even keel during this time of legal turmoil in her life.

Please do not take this to mean that Jewish Family Service is attempting to put an end to your relationship with Jenny. It is not known how far off the jury trial will be and she needs to have a period of time to emotionally adjust to the group home without the stress of talking and worrying about the legal situation.

Knowing of your feelings for Jenny, I trust you will work with Jewish Family Service to give Jenny a breathing period.

You can be assured that Jewish Family Service will be monitoring her situation closely. I remain

Very truly yours,

Gregory M. Pomije
